

Tova Perlmutter, Executive Director, Sugar Law Center for Economic and Social Justice, has over 20 years experience in administration, communications, fundraising and public education for nonprofit organizations. She obtained professional certification as a Senior Human Resources Professional while working to promote fair employment practices at a major corporation. She has been responsible for designing and monitoring many projects aimed at empowering people and attracting press coverage to social justice efforts. Tova also has conducted doctoral research on ethnic and racial politics in American cities.

Tova's work for Sugar Law includes building collaborations and partnerships with allies in the struggle for justice, maximizing Sugar Law Center's public visibility in order to maximize its impact, managing daily operations, and raising funds to ensure the Center's ability to continue the fight.